Forecast for Monday 27 Sep 2021

Weather: A wet night for all but rain beginning to clear the west by morning. Clearer brighter weather from early morning with some bright or sunny spells however showers are also likely to develop especially in the west, although with strong westerly winds any showers will move through quite quickly.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 700m: 10% in the early morning with a lot of low cloud associated with rainfall. Improving to 80% by mid morning, some patches or periods of scattered low cloud still likely especially in the west around showers.

Visibility: Poor visibility in the morning in heavy rain and with extensive low cloud from 400m. Cloud breaking up as rain clears and by the afternoon there will be bright spells and periods of low cloud near showers from 600m and above, in any heavier showers visibility will dip to a few kilometres for a time.
